

CHURCHES TOGETHER LONDON

Helping good things happen in London's neighbourhoods by listening, sharing and collaborating.

Join us Saturday March 7th, 9am-noon to hear Dave Witt, head of True City, speak about collaborative church and neighbourhood successes.

Over the past 11 years, True City Hamilton has been refining its model for congregations working together in their neighbourhoods.

We're meeting at West Park Church 955 Gainsborough Road in London. Admission is free, as are the home made snacks!

We'll also be hearing Graham Buchanan of West London Alliance, and share in a discussion forum with Sue Gowan.

Join us for a morning of insights and ideas for shared efforts here in London.
