

Churches Together London.com

is about...

Learning together to have effective community involvement

Investing in neighbourhoods through long-term relationships

Sharing efforts, ideas and resources

Building on community strengths and skills

Partnering with local churches and groups

Churches Together London is bringing people together to help in London's neighbourhoods. Started in 2010, we believe that churches are making a positive difference in our community, and that by listening and collaborating we can help good new things happen in London's neighbourhoods.

We've had three excellent meetings in the past year, with great discussions and community building.

"Transformational community ministry is the art and discipline of recognizing, developing and calling forth the gifts, talents and resources God has already placed in the world for the benefit of all in the community." - Dr. Mary Nelson

How can you connect in? The way that works for you!

- Come to a meeting. Our next meeting is Saturday, March 3rd, 9:30am to 11:00 at Village Green Community Church. Our meetings are fast-paced, with short presentations and interesting breakout sessions. We value contribution and the chance to share ideas. And there's snacks!

- Check out our website, with its videos, books, links and photos. Sign up for notices. ChurchesTogetherLondon.com

- Visit us on Facebook, and share in discussions and community:

- Email us questions and ideas: info@churchestogetherlondon.com

- Follow us on Twitter:
@ChurchesTLondon

Let's do good things together!

